AMENDED CIVIL CASE MANAGEMENT PLAN AND SCHEDULING ORDER

This Amended Civil Case Management Plan is submitted by Plaintiffs and Defendants Credit Suisse Group AG, Credit Suisse AG, and Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC, (collectively, “the Parties”) in accordance with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(f)(3) and the Court’s December 23, 2016 Civil Case Management Plan and Scheduling Order (ECF No. 704).<sup>1</sup>

I. Status Reports

On the second Friday of every other month, the Parties shall submit a joint status letter, as outlined in Rule IV.A.2 of this Court’s Individual Rules and Procedures for Civil Cases, unless the Parties agree that a status letter would not be useful for a particular bi-monthly period in which case the Court would be notified accordingly. The Parties will advise the Court in their submission whether the Parties believe a status conference would be useful to address pending issues.

The fact of the bi-monthly status reports does not affect the Parties’ right to raise discovery disputes at any time, if necessary, in accordance with Local Civil Rule 37.2 and Rules II.B.2 and III.C.3 of this Court’s Individual Rules and Procedures for Civil Cases.

II. Fact Discovery

A. Court’s Presumptive Discovery Limits

Given the complexity of the action, the relevant time period, the scope of the allegations, and the number of parties involved, the Parties shall meet and confer regarding the appropriate limitations of discovery, and, though necessary discovery may exceed that contemplated or required by Rule II.A of this Court’s Individual Rules and Procedures for Civil Cases, the Parties reserve their rights with respect to limitations set forth in Rule II.A of this Court's Individual Rules and Procedures for Civil Cases.

B. Stay of Fact Discovery

Fact discovery has commenced except that the commencement of certain percipient witness depositions have been stayed pursuant to the discovery stay requested by the U.S. Department of Justice ("DOJ") and ordered by the Court (the "DOJ discovery stay") (see ECF No. 863), and will continue in accordance with the parameters outlined in the DOJ letter in Case No. 15-cv-9300, ECF No. 475. The DOJ discovery stay expires December 8, 2017, subject to an application for renewal at that time and further order of the Court, given DOJ's continuing grand jury investigation into matters overlapping with the allegations in Plaintiffs' Complaint.

~~If the DOJ discovery stay is still in effect by March 30, 2018, the Parties may meet and confer about adjusting all subsequent deadlines in this Civil Case Management Plan. If the Parties agree that the deadlines in this Civil Case Management Plan should be adjusted, then they shall submit a revised proposed Civil Case Management Plan. If the Parties are unable to agree, they shall, within seven days of the initial meet and confer, submit their dispute to the Court for resolution.~~

~~Fact discovery shall be substantially completed by June 30, 2020.~~

Discovery Protocols

1. Electronically Stored Information ("ESI") and Document Production Protocol. ~~The ESI Protocol governs this action~~ (see ECF No. 712).
2. Deposition Protocol. ~~The Deposition Protocol governs this action~~ (see ECF No. 721).

C. Interim Discovery Deadlines

1. Discovery of Settling Defendants

To the extent a current or former employee of a Settling Defendant provides testimony pursuant to Section 14(b)(ix) of any Settlement Agreement, that testimony shall be conducted in accordance with Rule 30 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and all parties shall be given notice and an opportunity to participate.

To the extent Settling Defendants provide any further documents to Plaintiffs pursuant to Section 14(b)(iv) of the Settlement Agreements after the date of this Civil Case Management Plan, they shall contemporaneously provide such materials to Non-Settling Defendants. Settling Defendants shall meet and confer with Non-Settling Defendants regarding the production of information produced to Plaintiffs pursuant to Sections 14(b)(iii) and 14(b)(v) of the Settlement Agreements. As part of the meet and confer, the Settling Defendants and Non-Settling Defendants will, among other things, attempt to reach agreement on the manner in which the Non-Settling Defendants will store the Settling Defendants' data in order to protect the confidentiality of the data. To the extent the Settling Defendants and Non-Settling Defendants cannot reach agreement, they will seek the Court's assistance.

Non-Settling Defendants reserve the right to serve supplemental Document Requests on Settling Defendants and the Settling Defendants reserve the right to object to such requests.

~~Except for depositions sought pursuant to Hague requests which have been approved by the Court, but have not been completed as of April 19, 2018, and as otherwise as specified below, discovery shall be stayed pending the Court's ruling on Plaintiffs' class certification motion. Within thirty (30) days of the Court's ruling on Plaintiffs' class certification motion, the Parties shall submit a joint letter advising the Court of their views on how much time they need to complete discovery in light of the Court's ruling and the discovery completed prior to Plaintiffs' class certification motion being filed.~~ decided.

Re: In re Foreign Exchange Benchmark Rates Antitrust Litigation
Case No. 1:13-cv-07789-LGS

Dear Judge Schofield:

Pursuant to the Court's Sixth Amended Civil Case Management Plan and Scheduling Order (ECF No. 1423), the parties write to provide a joint status update regarding the COVID-19 pandemic and its impact on the operative pretrial schedule in this case. Having conferred with each other, the parties respectfully request that the Court extend all deadlines in the Scheduling Order by eight weeks to account for the widespread disruption caused by COVID-19.

The parties remain in the middle of expert discovery. The next deadline is for Plaintiffs to depose Defendants' four experts. Id. at 8. The parties agree that due to the technical nature and complexities involved with these depositions, both the preparation of Credit Suisse's experts by its counsel and the taking of the depositions by Plaintiffs' counsel are best accomplished in person. Though Credit Suisse's experts and the necessary counsel are located in the United States, current restrictions make completing these depositions by June 2 unlikely.

The parties are also conducting fact depositions in the United States and abroad. As a result of COVID-19 shelter-in-place orders and travel restrictions, Plaintiffs were forced to postpone all scheduled depositions, including depositions scheduled to occur in New York and London. Plaintiffs intend to take certain depositions remotely, specifically, depositions where the witnesses indicate they intend to invoke the Fifth Amendment, beginning in June 2020. Where, however, a witness intends to testify substantively, the parties agree that both preparation and deposition of the witness is best accomplished in person, especially where the witness is outside the trial subpoena power of this Court and the video record of the deposition may be the only means the Court and/or jury can evaluate the testimony.

The parties remain concerned that current (and future) air travel restrictions may either: (1) make exceedingly difficult or outright prohibit travel to attend these depositions; and/or (2) leave counsel stranded abroad or quarantined upon return.

Accordingly, the parties respectfully request an eight-week extension of the schedule and ask the Court to modify its Sixth Amended Scheduling Order to extend all deadlines by eight weeks as follows:

Honorable Lorna G. Schofield

May 14, 2020

Page 2

Current Deadline	Action	New Deadline
6/4/2020	Depositions of defendants' experts	7/30/2020
6/18/2020	Reply expert reports	8/13/2020
9/1/2020	Fact discovery substantially complete	10/27/2020
9/17/2020	Pre-motion conference for dispositive motions (with pre-motion letters due 14 days in advance)	After substantial completion of fact discovery, as set by Court 11/12/2020 at 10:40 a.m.

This extension will allow the parties to postpone pending depositions to protect health and minimize travel while the parties assess the ongoing developments related to COVID-19. The parties agree they will suffer no prejudice from this extension. The parties only make this request in light of the continuing exceptional circumstances at hand.

By July 16, 2020, the parties will submit a joint special status letter addressing whether any further modifications of the schedule are necessary.

Respectfully submitted,
